20 Course Description:

As stated in the approved study plan.

This course is about the use of financial information in the analysis of the performance of business entities.

21 Course aims and outcomes:

A- Aims:

The course contains five main parts.

The first part highlights the critical importance of “finance” in the performance of business establishments. In addition, it examines “the practice of finance” in real life.

The second part provides candidates with a brief outline of the financial statements, and introduces the main financial ratios.

The third part examines the behaviour and determinants of some of the main financial ratios.

The fourth part concludes the course by examining the concept of “Economic profit”.

B- Intended Learning Outcomes (ILOs):

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Understand the importance of finance in financial analysis.
2. Understand the meaning of the main financial ratios and what affects their behaviour.
3. Understand how to value firms..
4. Understanding of the implications of finance in firm performance, and the main financial ratios and their behavior.
5. Understand how to read and understand the relevant and up-to-date literature which examines the intellectual contents of this course.
